

Bands are the interquartile range over 30 seeded runs, not a confidence interval. Gradient descent is repeated in both panels as the shared reference.